We make special low prices for these events—create incentives which make it an economical object to attend. The principle adopted by Mr. Fordyce years ago, "Absolute truthfulness in advertising" is adhered to with the same strictness here year after year. The Department Managers are alert to take advantage of this last occasion to reduce stocks, deep cuts here and there on overstocks, means much to them, and much to the purchaser, which may be fully appreciated by a visit to this sale on Saturday, November 21.

THIS SPECIAL SALE will be the LAST ONE until after the Holiday Season is over. As is well known, our Holiday trade is assuming vast proportions, and with the new Toy Department, our attention after this sale will be given to Holiday wants. HUNDREDS OF MINERS KILLED WORST DISASTER IN YEARS OCCURRED AT HAMM, A TOWN IN GERMANY.

FIRE FOLLOWED EXPLOSION.

Of 380 Men Working in the Mine, Only Six Escaped Injury—Efforts to Rescue Failed—The Dead Number 339.

Hamm, Westphalia, Germany.—The greatest mine disaster in many years in Germany occurred Thursday at the Radbod mine, about three miles from here. There was a heavy explosion in the mine and the mine took fire. Of 380 miners working underground at the time, only six escaped without injury. Thirty-five were taken out badly injured and 37 were dead when brought to the mouth of the pit. The remaining 302 have been given up for lost.

The explosion, which was unusually violent, damaged one of the shafts, which had to be partly repaired before the rescue work was begun. In addition the flames and smoke proved almost insurmountable obstacles in the early efforts of the rescuing parties.

A special corps, composed of the men who rendered such valuable aid in the terrible mine disaster at Courrières, France, in March, 1906, arrived upon the scene shortly before noon, but were unable to enter the mine, being forced to await the result of the efforts of the firemen to keep the flames in check.

GOT IDOLS, BUT NO GOLD.

Hunters of Yellow Metal in Panama Had a Series of Thrilling Adventures.

New York City.—Baron Von Teuber, who arrived Thursday on the steamer Magdalena, from West Indian ports, told a thrilling story of a gold hunting expedition in Panama north of the canal zone which resulted in the death of three members of his party. The baron, with his brother and three mining engineers, who left this city several months ago for the gold and anthracite fields in the northern part of the Isthmus of Panama, guided north for Colon through what proved to be country jealously held by hostile Indians. A midnight encounter resulted in the fatal shooting of the Indian guides. Left thus, in a strange, practically trackless country, they wandered helplessly.

The three engineers were soon stricken with frightful fevers. The baron and his brother, however, made for the coast with the sick men, encountering constant hardships. John Bradley, one of the engineers, died in a boat they had constructed, but Frederick Smith and Peter Bartlett were finally taken to the Ancon hospital, where they are slowly recovering. The baron brought a collection of old idols which he will present to a museum.

An Ice Man Murders His Rival.

New York City.—A pair of ice tongs were used with deadly effect Thursday to settle a feud that has existed between two East Side ice men, Louis Schneider and Harry Feuerstein, for several years. Until recently the men supplied the same district, but last month decided to divide the territory. Feuerstein heard Thursday that Schneider had accused him of acting unfairly and he went to the latter's establishment and started for Schneider with a knife. Schneider grabbed a pair of tongs and struck at his rival. The tongs opened and one of the prongs buried itself in the brain of Feuerstein.

Clergymen Get Small Salaries.

New York City.—That the minimum salary for an unmarried clergyman in the diocese of New York should be $1,200, and for a married clergyman $1,200 and a suitable place to live, or $1,500 in money, was the resolution passed Thursday in the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York. Dr. Leighton Parks, who proposed the resolution, said that there were 21 clergyman in New York, 15 of whom were married, who received less than $1,200 annually. One man had no salary; another received $410 a year.

Six Men Killed.

Buffalo, N. Y.—A gasoline launch towing a clinker boat containing ten Chinamen crossing from Canada, was wrecked on the south break wall Thursday and six of the Chinamen were killed and four saved themselves by clambering upon the wall.

Five Children Die in Fire.

Elkins, W. Va.—Five children of E. J. Rice, a barber at Beverly, lost their lives in a fire that destroyed their home. The fire followed an explosion of gas.

Public Credulity.

After making full allowance for the increased spending power of the masses, figures prove conclusively that notwithstanding the wide diffusion of knowledge, the spread of education and the raising of the standard of intelligence among the people, the appeal of the quack and the charlatan to the credulity of the public meets with a readier response than ever.—London Hospital.

THE KAISER SURRENDERS.

Emperor William Promises to Keep His Mouth Shut Regarding Foreign Affairs.

Berlin, Nov. 18.—Forced by the angry tide of popular feeling that swept the empire from end to end Emperor William on Tuesday yielded to the nation, and promised henceforth to conform himself to constitutional methods of conducting the politics of Germany.

The climax to the public utterances of the emperor was reached in an interview which he gave to an Englishman and which was published in the London Daily Telegraph on October 23. As the outcome of this, the whole country was aroused; the reichstag endorsed the attitude of many of its prominent members when they denounced the sovereign, and Chancellor Von Buelow, while he attempted to smooth away the affair, undertook to communicate to his majesty a straightforward statement of how the German people viewed his intervention in affairs of state.

The interview between the emperor and the imperial chancellor took place at Potsdam Tuesday and at its conclusion the emperor made formal promise to his people that in the future he would not act except through the chancellor and his associate ministers. This promise was made public in the Reichsanzeiger, the official gazette of the empire.

FIRE DESTROYS A HOTEL.

The Famous Lookout Inn, on the Crest of Lookout Mountain, Is Burned to the Ground.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 18.—Famous old Lookout Inn, on the crest of Lookout Mountain, was burned to the ground Tuesday, together with all its contents. The owners stated that a deal had just been arranged for the sale of the property for $135,000. There was $25,000 insurance on the hotel and its furnishings. Aside from the hotel four cottages and their contents were destroyed, entailing a loss of $16,000. The incline power house was damaged and the trestle on the face of the bluff was ablaze for a time.

There is a streak of fire almost from the top to the base of Lookout Mountain along the line of the incline railroad, and a force of men is fighting to prevent its spread to the timber and the many cottages which dot the slope of the mountain.

The hotel was completed in 1889 and contained about 400 rooms. Each season since its opening it has been visited by persons of note from all over the world. Prince Henry of Prussia pronounced it the most ideal spot he had ever visited and the scenery more gorgeous than that of the Swiss Alps.

A Statement from W. J. Bryan.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 18.—"My friends do not require me to prejudice the future, and I shall not take the advice of my opponents on this subject. I shall continue to write and speak in defense of things which I believe to be good for the American people. I hope it may never become necessary to run for office again, but I will not decide that question until the time comes to act." In answer to the direct question: "Will you run for the presidency again if conditions arise to warrant it?" William J. Bryan distated the foregoing statement Tuesday.

Billek Is Sentenced to Hang.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Herman Billek, convicted of the murder of five members of the Venz family, was on Tuesday sentenced by Judge Barnes to hang on December 11.

One of the World's Wonders.

Good Advice.

During a certain battle the colonel of an Irish regiment noticed that one of the men was extremely devoted to him, and followed him everywhere. At length he remarked "Well, my man, you have stuck by me well to-day." "Yes, sir," replied Pat. "Sure it was me mother said to me, says she, 'Just you stick to the colonel, Patrick, me boy, and you'll be all right. Them colonels never gets hurt.'"

They Kept the Country.

Two Americans were being shown through the citadel at Quebec by a British soldier. Halting at a certain spot on the parade ground, their guide pointed to a small cannon. "This," said he, "is a gun we captured from the Americans at the battle of Bunker Hill."

Quick as a flash came this reply: "Well, as we kept the country, we can afford to let you have the gun."

HAT PIN NOVELTIES

USEFUL DEVICES EASILY MADE AT HOME.

Little Presents for the Christmas Season. That Have a Distinct Individuality—Made to Match Shade of Gown.

The English custom of fashioning hat pins and buttons out of shoe lacings might well be revived at the Christmas time and thus for a few cents and a little care several useful presents can be made that will have a sort of individuality of their own.

The domes of lacings are easily made and the buttons would look well on a heavy winter coat. If made of tan lacings, they could match the shade of brown chosen for a suit. A cheap glass headed hat pin costing a cent apiece, a dozen or more shoe buttons for a nominal sum, a pair of pliers or tweezers, a sharp-pointed stiletto or awl, a couple of dozen shoe laces, a bottle of liquid glue and the outfit is complete for making the hat pins and buttons.

One button will make two buttons.

cut the lace in two at the center and make a knot as shown, which is not at all difficult to copy. The ends should be much longer than is shown in the diagram, where they appear to be cut short for convenience.

Now, take one end and bring it around to meet the other end which it follows on its track, lying always evenly by its side until two lines of lace lie together in a sort of double figure of eight. The other end is then taken and follows the part of lace lying next it, interlacing under and over until four lines lie together as the illustrations show. By the time four lines are together the whole will have become a rough dome-shape and after a little tightening, you can insert the button or hat pin.

The knot will now have to be pulled very tight, even and taut. The awl and pliers will prove very useful. In the final tightening, follow only one end of the lace right through until you reach the other end. Take care the awl does not slip and pierce the finger. When the knot is tight over the head of the hat pin or button, cut off the ends with a sharp penknife, press a strand down to cover the severed ends and carefully fasten with a generous drop of liquid glue.

One English girl made six dozen of these hat pins for a bazaar where they had a ready sale.

Flowers for a Bride. Natural flowers, whether orange blossoms or some more exclusive, almost unobtainable specimen of the conservatory, appear to be the preference of the brides of to-day. While sweet peas, gardenias and even orchids appeal to some brides, but there are others whose preference leans toward the impossible, especially at this season of the year. However, lilies of the valley and the ever-fragrant white rose will remain the favorites of the sensible bride of to-day, as they were the choice of the maiden years ago, when there was less nonsense and more practical sense in things pertaining to the tale of the marriage.

Removing Ink Stains from Hands. The purple stains caused by handling a typewriter ribbon may be removed from the hands with a cloth wet with pure alcohol. This treatment saves the necessity of a prolonged scrubbing, and is far less injurious to delicate fingers. What a comfort this knowledge will be to the stenographer whose ribbon must always be changed just about the end of the day!

"Suffered day and night the torment of it being pious. Nothing helped me until I read Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It got me permanently."—Hon. John R. Garrett, Mayor, Grand, Ala.

Placing an Ostrich Feather. The quills of plumage do not show this season. Because of the fondness for marabou, the plumes now start off from a little bed of it. The marabou is made into a fluffy rosette and is laid all over the quill part of the feather. It is a good trick and one that should be followed.
